Music Director

Dr. Jeanine Trent, award-winning conductor and pianist, will present "Up Close and Musical," an informative talk, 30 minutes prior to each concert.

Mission Statement

Inland Valley Symphony provides cultural enrichment through orchestral performance and education, fosters musical development and arts awareness for youth and its members and promotes the appreciation of music for the greater community.

Inland Valley Youth Symphony

The youth symphony is entering its 2nd Season with a roster of over 50 talented young musicians. Conducted by Dr. Jeanine Trent, the orchestra presents two concerts per year and participates in various community outreach programs.

Concert: Dec. 12, 2009 (Sat.) - 7 pm

Murrieta Mesa High School (Theater)

Concert: May 3, 2010 (Mon.) - 7 pm

Old Town Temecula Community Theater

I.V.S. proudly sponsors the youth symphony by providing coaching and leadership; encouraging the development of tomorrow's musical leaders.

Assistant Artistic Director - Dr. Richard Wilson

Contributions

The Inland Valley Symphony flourishes because of your generous contributions. We also accept in-kind donations, used musical instruments and items that may be auctioned to raise funds. If you would like to leave a musical legacy please consider talking to us about planned giving. We are also seeking corporate sponsors who would like to help us share music with the community. Advertisement spots are available in our program book, on our website and in marketing materials.

We appreciate any and all donations.

The Symphony is a tax-exempt 501 (c)(3) non-profit corporation. All donations are deductible to the full amount allowed by law.

Please contact Alana Joos, President, with any questions. (760) 318-0460
